

Welcome to the 2018 IG11 Art Trail

The trail is our way to celebrate Barking as a place rich with creativity; a place where artists live and make their work, and where great art and culture is available to everyone. For the month of September and October we're showcasing the work of several incredible local artists in unexpected places, from residential windows to foyers of civic buildings. Use this Trail Guide to navigate your way around the venues. Please let us know what you think – on Facebook/studio3artsbarking, Instagram @studio3arts and Twitter. If you'd like to get involved, or find out more about our work – pop into to our studio in Barking – friendly faces, and free tea and coffee awaits you!

SHARLENE CARTER
PRESENTS

13:60

Friday 21 & Saturday 22
September 7.30pm
Barking Broadway

A moving autobiographical work from Sharlene Carter which reveals the kaleidoscopic relationship she has had with her mum Patricia since 2005.

13.60 is a poignant hip hop theatre piece, bursting with socio-political content that reflects Sharlene's role as a carer. Directed by Liza Vallance and with music from Torben Lars Sylvest, this is a story that needs to be heard. How does the every day life of a mother/daughter relationship change, once disability and the new role of being a carer become the norm.

"In life people have different disability needs and these are not always visible"
Sharlene Carter
