Shout out to....

10G

For continuous effort in PE. Special mention to the girls for improvement in their match skills.

Shout out to....

Omarion

In Science, Omarion's attitude and work has improved significantly this week and he collaborates well with his partner to ensure he has a good understanding of the topic. He has also been very resilient when he has found work difficult and has not given up.

Shout out to....

Calum

History: For consistent effort and engaging really well with class discussions, asking really interesting questions and expanding on his answers in class.
