Shout out to....

Daniel

for his continued hard work in science. He is very resilient and completes all of his work to the highest quality and regularly moves onto extension work. He is also helpful to other students in class and explains the work to them.

Shout out to....

Roha, Rici and Fahim

for fantastic effort and resilience in English. They have tackled the focused writing lessons with excellent resilience. They've remained focused for the full hour, used their time wisely, and acted on teacher feedback in the lesson to improve their work!

Shout out to....

Younes

for working consistently well in his lesson
and challenging himself as much as possible! Great stuff Younes! Miss Faruke
