

This weeks...

8J from Miss. Bevan:

8J were absolutely amazing yesterday in PE. Even though the weather was extremely cold (snowy conditions) and some were not wearing appropriate clothing for PE they still persevered and tried their absolute hardest with little complaints. I have seen a massive improvement in their behaviour this week and I am so proud every single one of them. Special shout out to Ammar (who asked me to send the shout out) for an amazing week in regards to his behaviour and dancing skills in form. Please keep up the hard work!

8J from Miss. Haywood:

Well done for a fantastic civics lesson this week. You all engage in a difficult topic and I was very interested to hear all of your mature contributions!

Keep up the good work and working well as a form!

Ahmed G, Yasin, Nabeel & Adnan N from Miss. Livandovschi:

- ▶ Ahmed (8G) - was the first student in the running competition who got all answers correct. He was determined, focused and fast. Good job, Ahmed!
- ▶ Yasin and Nabeel (8G) - worked very hard throughout the lesson and completed the class work at their best, by taking the most advantage of the peer dialogue. Keep it up, boys!
- ▶ Adnan (8K) - was the most engaged student in the 'beat the teacher' game and this enabled him to make a real progress in improving his pronunciation!

Everyone who participated in Culture Day:
